St.Vital Junior Program

Jackie Hebert of St.Vital and her teammates Amanda Toews, Jennifer Klos, Cara Joseph and Melanie Hunt (coached by Mike Hebert) won the Prostar 4th event in the Asham 8 - ender Youth Bonspiel. (The champions are pictured with Terry Gibb representing title sponsor Asham 8 - Ender)

The St.Vital team beat Matthew Singbeil's Assiniboine team 10 - 2 in the event final.

In the semi-finals, Hebert defeated Lucas Van Den Bosch of Pembina 11-5 and Singbeil was a 11-0 winner over Gregory Van Achte of Assiniboine Memorial.

We would also like to congratulate St. Vital Gunfighter Matt Dunstone for taking his Wildwood team to the B Final in that event.

We had our annual Hotshots Competition/Christmas party just before Christmas. The curlers compete to score points in 6 different skills oriented challenges, similar to what they do in the Brier and Scott. They don't win a car, but the winners take home trophies and some serious prize money (thanks Ed). Congrats to Matt Brown who set a new world record score this year!

Sheet #4 - Ducharme Agencies (Insurance)
Sheet #5 - Superior Asphalt (Driveways, Snow Removal)

We would like to thank these sponsors, along with numerous other business people who take ads in our Roster for their support in the 2005/2006 curling season.

The Target Junior Women's Provincials

The Target Junior Women's Provincials was held here at St.Vital Curling Club from January 4th - 8th. The week began with Jennifer Jones and Cathy Overton Clapham, our very own Canadian Champions attending the banquet. Jennifer spoke at the banquet to all players and coaches and parents about her experiences, dreams and goals. All the girls were very inspired by her.

At the Opening Ceremonies Jennifer threw the ceremonial opening rock and Cathy held the broom. Two Junior Sweepers Jackie Hebert and Natalie Lemoine swept Jennifer's rock right to the button. The week was a huge success and we could not have done it without our committee chairs, Al & Sylvia Erickson, Jim & Linda Colman, Al Wingate, Bill Stewart, Roger Fontaine, Bob Kirkland, Jeff Keeler, Ralph Dooley, Elaine Jones, Angela Trombo, Greg Milloy, Bryon Batchelor and all of our many volunteers, thanks to you all.

Annette Giguere & Lorne Cox 2006 Target Junior Women's Co -Chairs

The Girls winning team from LaSalle Curling Club was:

Skip - Calleen Neufeld
Third - Sabrina Neufeld
Second - Laryssa Greko
Lead - Lindsay Edie
Coach - Calvin Edie

They will go on to the Junior Nationals in Thunder Bay, January 21 – 29, Good Luck to them!

Thank you to our many Corporate Sponsors who helped make this event a success;
